

Augmented Reality Instructions

To Prepare:

1. Download and install “Aurasma Lite” app.
Complete app installation before proceeding to Step 2.
 - a. iPhone
 - b. Android
2. Click icon labeled “2. Get Onion” at goo.gl/vuzig.
This will open the Aurasma app and in less than 1 minute a notice will indicate that the content is now available.

To View:

Point Aurasma viewer at an aura trigger image, such as the Something Wicked This Way Comes teaser ad in The Onion RI edition. The viewable area on the screen should be matched up to the ad dimensions. Hold viewer still above the trigger image. A blue arrow will appear within a few seconds indicating a trigger was found and an aura is loading. See demo videos or email us for help at info@tagitup.net .

Now What?

Now you are ready for the full release in the September 2012 edition of The Onion RI. We'll have Onion news report videos, something fun, and who-knows-what from your most creative local businesses.
